

Smucker's presents Hot Ice, Cool Sounds
2008 Fact Sheet
Live Show date: Saturday, October 18, 2008 at 7:30 p.m.

NBC Air date: Thursday, December 25, 2008 at 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. EST

WHAT: The Cleveland Pops Orchestra, along with singer and songwriter Peter Cetera, will headline a special evening of entertainment that mixes music and ice skating in "Smucker's presents Hot Ice, Cool Sounds," set for Oct. 18 in Youngstown's Chevrolet Centre at 7:30 p.m.

WHERE TAPED: Chevrolet Center in Youngstown, Ohio

GUEST

ARTISTS: The Cleveland Pops Orchestra and Peter Cetera

The Cleveland Pops, led by Carl Topilow, performs everything from sports themes to Frank Sinatra, Barry Manilow to music from Disney. Peter Cetera is perhaps best known as one of the original members of the rock band, Chicago. He eventually embarked on a solo career that included numerous trips to the top of the Billboard charts. Among his No. 1 hits are "Glory of Love," which was the theme song to the movie "Karate Kid II," "The Next Time I Fall," a Grammy Award-nominated love ballad he performed with Amy Grant and "Restless Heart." He has performed with numerous musical stars, ranging from David Foster to Billy Joel and his work has been nominated for Grammy and Academy Awards.

SKATERS:

Sasha Cohen	Olympic Silver medalist
Brian Boitano	Olympic Gold medalist
Todd Eldredge	six-time U.S. champion
Yuka Sato	World champion
Shae-Lynn Bourne	World dance champion nine-time Canadian National champion
Michael Weiss	three-time U.S. champion
Jennifer Robinson	six-time Canadian champion
Jamie Sale & David Pelletier	Olympic pairs champions
Marie-France Dubreuil &	two-time World Silver medalists dancing
Patrice Lauzon	champions

MEDIA CONTACT: Lynn Plage: (303) 716-9500, lplage@lpcpublicity.com
Kristi Mohrbacher: (720) 308-4431, kmohrbacher@lpcpublicity.com